Small Group Studies | 2025

Please indicate your interest by checking a box, providing your name and preferred contact method, and dropping this card in the offering plate!

Adult Small Group Studies at AUMC are one of the ways we walk in the way that leads to life. These studies are an opportunity to walk together in Christ-centered community as we learn more, love one another, and experience firsthand the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. We look forward to connecting with you!

Coming Up at Auburn UMC

Auburn UMC has many opportunities for you to be involved. Find out more about these ministries on our website, aumc.net.

- New Member Sunday | January 26, 11am | Sanctuary
Join us for New Member Sunday on January 26 as we welcome new members into the life of our church! If you or someone you know has been interested in joining AUMC, please reach out to Kelli if you would like to join the church on New Member Sunday.
- Becoming Beloved Community | Sunday, February 2
Join us for a special event featuring Auburn native and children's book author Rev. Dr. Terrence Vickerstaff! We'll learn more about his new children's book, Betsey Scott Harper: The Story of an Auburn First Family, and how history and storytelling relate to our faith today. Children are invited to join Dr. Vickerstaff from 4:30p-4:50p in the Hospitality Room (between the Sanctuary and Chapel). The community is invited to join us at 5pm in the Sanctuary. Rev. Dr. Joan Harrell of Becoming the Beloved Community will host the program and interview Dr. Vickerstaff. A time of fellowship & connection with community organizations will be held immediately following the program.
- Registration for Auburn UMC Preschool
Registration will be held for the 2025-2026 school year will be held the week of January 27-31. We extend the courtesy to our existing preschool families a priority registration on January 27, church members on January 28, and our CDO families on January 29-30. For more information contact Beth Bedsole at preschool@aumc.net
